

News for CONSTITUTIONAL REPUBLICANS

MAY/JUNE 2008

SPECIAL EDITION

June 3rd voters have a choice for common sense with Donna Ward, Murray Sabrin

SOUTHERN NJ — Donna Ward is running for the Republican nomination for Candidate for US Congress, New Jersey District 2. These are critical times for this country. The economy is in an unprecedented state of turmoil, and the outlook is dismal. People are losing their jobs, their homes and their savings. Businesses are reporting drops in sales and many are going into bankruptcy. Prices are soaring on everyday purchases such as gasoline and wheat. Our best and brightest are being put at risk; injured, maimed and killed in a very unpopular war. Our civil liberties are being taken away at an alarming rate in the interest of an ill-defined “war on terror.” While it is easy to blame the President, or the Democrats and Republicans, a full share of the blame must fall at the feet of Congress. In the last Congressional elections voters across the country voted for new members of Congress. The change didn’t go far enough, and in too many cases replaced one career politician with another. Fortunately, there is a nation-wide movement of concerned citizens who are willing to tempt the long odds of running for office without the backing of the old-time party bosses or the big-time corporate donors. Donna Ward is one of these, and South Jersey is lucky to have such a candidate.

Donna is running for Congress as a “Constitutional Republican.” It’s a very simple concept. Any bill coming before Congress must comply with all of the provisions of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Ward said she decided to run for Congress after the Federal Reserve bailed out Bear Stearns this year with a $29 billion investment package. Critics said the deal forces U.S. taxpayers to assume the debt’s risk.

NJ GOP voters wise to elect Sabrin for U.S. Senate

When Murray Sabrin speaks, the special interests sweat. Big-government bureaucrats furrow their brows. The purveyors of political correctness swallow hard.

They should be nervous. People might pay close attention to what Sabrin has to say.

Sabrin is an unapologetic defender of personal liberties and an advocate for less government interference in people’s lives. Sabrin’s message is one that should be popular in New Jersey.

Sabrin came to this country in 1949, the son of parents who were the only ones in their respective families to survive the Holocaust. Perhaps because of his unique perspective, he cherishes the rights and liberties that too many Americans take for granted. In many ways, Sabrin is truly the embodiment of the American experience.

Republicans who want a candidate who supports their personal rights, limited government and traditional core GOP values have their man in Sabrin.
